By registering to participate in the UUCB Youth and Children's Choir, I understand that I am expected to be on time, display a positive attitude, show respect for myself and others, take good care of my music, stole and/or costume, and attend every rehearsal, every performance and every retreat as my health allows. Helping to lead worship services is an important responsibility. I am willing to make the Choir a priority in my life.

Signed, _____

Schedule Conflicts

Please let me know of any scheduling conflicts you foresee with the rehearsal and performance schedule. (THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT)

Helping Out

UUCB has a two-adult policy for our Children and Youth Programs. We need a second adult to monitor every rehearsal where children are present. Would you be able to sit in on rehearsals occasionally? _____

Choir Retreats help to build cohesive, supportive and effective groups. We need help with monitoring, food preparation and merry making. Which one of these tasks appeals to you? _____
